2006年國際武術錦標賽

Sanctioned by United States Traditional Kung Fu Wushu Federation

Greetings!

It is with great pleasure we welcome you to the 2006 Taiji Legacy International Martial Arts Championships, celebrating the Year of the Dog. This event is hosted by the USA Chin Woo Federation and sanctioned by the US Traditional Kung Fu Wushu Federation. The Taiji Legacy will be unique in its own, gathering all styles of taiji and kungfu from all parts of the world, making it a spectacular event. A 72 foot, multi-colored, illuminated dragon and 8 lion dance demonstration and performances by all major styles of taiji will be displayed at the opening of the tournament.

A demonstration by nationally and internationally distinguished masters will be held Saturday morning, July 22. On Sunday morning, July 23, we will host the exciting Sanshou Fights.

Last year's competition was a success, drawing in nearly 800 competitors and 3000 spectators to this event. This year, we are inviting schools from around the world and are anticipating 900 to 1000 competitors! With the support from local judges, guest judges and officials, we predict that this tournament will again be well organized and run efficiently.

Hosted in the beautiful city of Dallas, Texas, the Taiji Legacy will be held in the spacious Plano Convention Centre, conveniently located approximately 5 miles from the tournament hotels. We aim not only to make your visit to Dallas pleasant and memorable, but also to present you with an immensely challenging competition that you will enjoy. We hope to see you all!

Jimmy Wong

Tournament Chairman & Chief Organizer
President, USA Chin Woo Federation
